

223—3.2(17A,22) Statement of policy and scope.

3.2(1) The purpose of this chapter is to facilitate broad public access to open records. It also seeks to facilitate sound determinations by the state archives with respect to the handling of confidential records and the implementation of the fair information practices Act. The state archives is committed to the policies set forth in Iowa Code chapter 22; state archives staff shall cooperate with members of the public in implementing the provisions of that chapter.

3.2(2) Scope of chapter. The provisions of this chapter apply to records which are in the custody of the state archivist in accordance with Iowa Code Supplement section 305.9(1). Administrative materials created and held by the state archives are subject to 221—Chapter 2. This chapter shall not be construed to:

- a.* Require the state archives to index or retrieve records which contain information about an individual by that person's name or other personally identifiable information;
- b.* Apply to records which are developed by the state archives or any unit of the society unless those records are housed in the state archives as records having enduring value in accordance with Iowa Code Supplement section 305.9(1); or
- c.* Govern the maintenance or disclosure of, notification of or access to records in the possession of the state archives that are governed by the regulations of another agency.
